The 12th Annual Wasatch Intermountain Fly Tying and Fly Fishing Expo Comes Back to the Mountain America Expo Center April 6th - 7th

Sandy, UT (March 20, 2018) – The Wasatch Intermountain Fly Tying and Fly Fishing Expo celebrates the upcoming spring fly fishing season with its 12th Annual Show, April 6th-7th. Supported by Trout Unlimited and the Federation of Fly Fishers, fly fishing enthusiasts young and old novice to expert can enjoy seminars, casting presentations and booths from some of top manufactures, retailers, tying experts and enthusiast alike from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm Friday and Saturday.

Admission is $10 for adults, $8 if you pre-purchase online, children 15 and under are FREE. Each entrance fee includes: 3 general raffle tickets, and an entry for a Guided Fly Fishing Trip for 2!

“I look forward to the expo every April,” explains Jason Dyer, Content Manager for Brightonanglers.com. “I consider it the official kick off to the spring fly fishing season.”

The Expo will be host to over 90 Vendors, 100+ Fly Tiers, casting competition, women’s specific classes, and youth programs in addition to many other open classes and seminars. Back by popular demand, The Expo’s Adventure Theater where vendors representing outfitters and lodges will showcase their offerings. Also, back for 2018 will be a wide range of panel discussions on topics such as Steelhead Fishing, Fishing the Green River, Utah’s Blue Ribbon Fisheries, the Utah Cutthroat Slam and many others with 4 to 5 well-known experts representing each topic’s panel.

“There are great fishing expos all around the Intermountain West but we pride this show on having a healthy balance of local information in addition to some of the best outfitters and fly fishing experts from around the world,” said Jack Dennis, WIMFTFF Expo General Chairman. “Fly fishers form novice to expert can learn about fly fishing in Utah’s Wasatch Mountains as well as have several chances to see what other areas of the world offer great fly fishing for our attending anglers.”
